

Zoe has extensive experience both prosecuting and defending all types of criminal cases, including murder, attempted murder, serious assaults, drugs offences, money laundering, fraud, armed robbery, firearms offences, sexual assault and rape, child sex offences and trafficking.

In 2006, Zoe took a leave of absence from Chambers to pursue an interest in human rights law in Cambodia, working with the US Agency for International Development's Law and Democracy program, before moving on to head the Rule of Law team within the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights. She returned to practice at Lincoln House Chambers in October 2008.

EDUCATION / PROFESSIONAL

Manor School, Cheadle Hulme.
University of Nottingham 1992-1996 (LL.B. Law with European Law)
Inns of Court School of Law 1997-1998
J C Smith Scholarship
Malcolm Hilberry Award for Advocacy (Gray's Inn 1998)
Member of the Criminal Bar Association
Member of the Northern Circuit.

PERSONAL

LEISURE
Theatre, cinema, music and travel.