

Tim Storrie KC

Call to Bar: 1993

Silk Year: 2020

"Tim is superb. He is fearless, highly intelligent, articulate, has flair for language and his legal arguments flow beautifully. He has the ear of the judge, he is totally trustworthy and a fighter" Crime - Chambers and Partners 2026

"Tim Storrie is extremely articulate and charismatic." Financial Crime - Chambers and Partners 2026

"He has a reputation for appearing in high-profile cases of the utmost seriousness whilst retaining an approachable and friendly manner with clients and juries." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2025

"Tim is methodical, structured and notices everything that others overlook." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2025

"He holds the jury's attention with every word and his written work is remarkable." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2025

"Tim's use of language is captivating." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2025

"He is a class act of composure and style." Financial Crime - Chambers and Partners 2025

"Tim Storrie KC is commended for his command of serious financial crime cases. He is proficient in handling cases involving allegations of fraud, money laundering and corruption." Financial Crime - Chambers and Partners 2024

"Tim is first choice for the most technical of cases due to his experience, knowledge and approach." Financial Crime - Chambers and Partners 2024

"Tim Storrie KC is highly regarded for his expertise in both financial crime and general criminal matter. He acts for both the prosecution and the defence on significant homicides and cases involving organised crime." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2024

Contact details:

Tim.storrie@lincolnhousechambers.com

0161 832 5701

Clerk Contact details:

Dwright@lincolnhousechambers.com

David Wright – 0161 832 5701

Practice areas:

Business Crime & Financial Regulation

Criminal Law

Inquests

Judicial Review Law

Professional Discipline

Regulatory

Professional appointments:

Criminal Bar Association

Association of Regulatory and Disciplinary Lawyers.

Administrative Law Bar Association

Northern Circuit

Middle Temple

"He mesmerises the jury in court and leaves you in awe." Crime - Chambers and Partners 2024

"Tim is very, very focused on client care. He is one of the most eloquent members of the Bar I have come across." - Chambers & Partners, 2023

"He is very focused on client care." - Chambers & Partners, 2023

"Tim is an eloquent member of the Bar." - Chambers & Partners, 2023

"A very balanced, fair and determined advocate." - Chambers & Partners, 2022

"He's knowledgeable on the law and his advocacy is second to none." Chambers & Partners, 2022

"He is a very eloquent barrister. His advocacy is his top skill - he is brilliant in front of a jury." Chambers & Partners, 2022

"He is delightful, really jury-friendly. He is a lovely oral advocate and is measured and appealing in court." "A very eloquent and intelligent man." - Chambers & Partners, 2021

"He has a fantastic way with words and is a very eloquent barrister. He is unflappable and deals with things in a very calm and measured way." "a very safe pair of hands and very charming with juries."

"Our first choice due to his experience, knowledge and approach." - Chambers & Partners, 2021

"One of the most eloquent members of the Bar – a joy to listen to." The Legal 500, 2021

"His recent track record includes money laundering, murder and drugs offences trials" Legal 500 2017

"He has a considerable intellect, which he deploys with energy, charm and good humour." Legal 500 2016

An exceptional advocate, Tim is admired for his work in serious, sensitive and complex pieces of litigation. He has the distinction of being ranked for his work in Financial Crime and in General Crime.

Tim maintains a balance in his work of instructions from the Prosecution and Defence, across a spectrum of litigation. His principal specialisms are homicide, organised crime, financial & business crime. He also has considerable experience in work with a medico-legal setting or a regulatory context. In silk, Tim has progressed into the area of appellate work, where his capacity for analysis of complex, systematic problems has attracted praise.

As a prosecutor Tim is sought for his experience in dealing with organised crime groups, conspiracies that arise from covert means of communication, and plots to murder. His particular strength is in the presentation of cases that are made complex by reason of their factual backgrounds.

Tim's experience for the defence is no less strong. He has a reputation for excellence in gang-related homicide cases, and for his expertise in the cases in which partial human remains have been recovered. He has also attracted private instructions, for distinguished professional men, to defend allegations of sexual misconduct.

In the sphere of financial crime, Tim has acted in cases of organised fraud and in circumstances where corruption was alleged against a background of corporate activity. He has particular expertise in cases of international controller-led money laundering.

Tim's experience in a variety of cases of manslaughter have revealed his adeptness in the conduct of cases with medical explanations. These pieces of work have frequently, in their analysis of the detail of medical histories, constituted pain-staking inquiries into the issues before the court.

HOMICIDE

R v Jabriel Ferguson & Ors. (Manchester) For the Defence. acquittal in multi-handed trial in which the allegation was of a revenge killing.

R v Martin Thomas & Ors. (Manchester) For the Defence. The defendant, a drill artist, was accused of conspiracy to murder in revenge for the loss of a friend. Convicted of lesser offences.

R v Ernest Weber & Ors (Leeds) For the Defence. Human remains discovered by a reservoir, nearly a decade after the killing.

R v Andrew Burfield (Preston) for the Defence. Deceased found in a makeshift grave in a beauty spot after a national missing persons inquiry had been launched.

R v William Wilkinson (Preston) For the Defence. Defendant dismembered his neighbour and distributed the body parts across various locations.

R v Lee Knox (Liverpool) For the Prosecution. The Joseph McKeever murder: the events occurred against a background of serious, organised criminal activity.

ORGANISED CRIME & FINANCIAL CRIME

Operation Girdwood & Measle: (Manchester) For the Prosecution, for NCA and GMP. Encrochat related conspiracies to murder, trade in automatic weapons and drugs

Operation Guatemala (Manchester) For the Prosecution for NWROCU Encrochat related conspiracy to trade in firearms, international money laundering, and drugs by OCG members

Operation Beehive (Manchester) For the Prosecution, For GMP, filmed in the BAFTA-winning documentary, as "Taking Down an OCG" this was known as the 'Skinny Awaits' case.

Operation Tarlac (Leicester) for the Defence. D acquitted of participation in conspiracies to defraud, and associated money-laundering, in multi-million pound deception practised on public authorities

R v Fairbairn (Newcastle) for the Defence. D, a company director, convicted of offences arising out of misconduct and fraudulent dealing with company assets.

R v Mohammed Awais Sajid (Court of Appeal Criminal Division) For the Prosecution, resisting an appeal against conviction on grounds of fresh evidence.

Cases of Medical Complexity

R v Elaine Clarke (Preston) for the Defence. Defendant guilty of manslaughter by neglect of her disabled child, where there was a long history of medical intervention.

R v Elaine Clarke (AG's Ref) for the Respondent: resistance of application to refer the case to the Court of Appeal Criminal Division on grounds of undue leniency

R v XX.(Bolton) for the Prosecution Newborn child died from injuries consistent with episode of baby-shaking.

R v Simmonds (Preston) for the Defence. Unlawful act manslaughter complicated by apparent incidences of less-than-optimal medical treatment.

R v Joe Walker (CACD) for the Appellant. Findings of High Retained Culpability, and Hybrid Order for s.45A, with discretionary life imprisonment overturned after serial deficiencies in approach of the sentencing court, in relation to psychiatric evidence. Findings of Wednesbury Unreasonableness by the Court. Guidance given as to the approach for sentencing offenders who had admitted manslaughter by reason of diminished responsibility.

LINCOLN
HOUSE
CHAMBERS