

LINCOLN HOUSE CHAMBERS NOW RECRUITING

Lincoln House Chambers is recruiting across a number of its core practice areas.

Lincoln House is a long established set which enjoys enviable success and an outstanding reputation across a variety of practice areas. Both the members of Chambers and the highly proactive, efficient clerking team regularly feature in the top rankings of Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners Directories. Many of our members are also appointed to specialist counsel panels and hold part time judicial appointments.

Applications are invited from exceptional candidates, especially in the following practice areas:

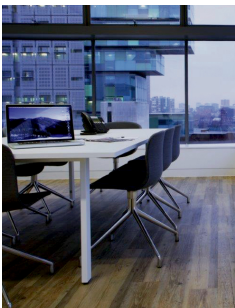

Crime

'Quoted as the top set in Manchester and a national contender for crime work, Lincoln House Chambers has a formidable reputation for heavy fraud and serious criminal work'. Legal 500 2021

Defence - We invite applications from practitioners of all seniority levels above 5 years call.

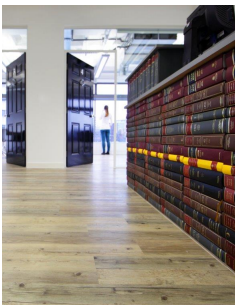

Prosecution - We invite applications from practitioners who are appointed to the CPS Prosecuting Panel at Category 3 or above and practitioners who are appointed to the RASSO, Serious Crime & Fraud Panels.

Regulatory

'A top-drawer set, Lincoln House Chambers is a first-choice for business and regulatory crime matters. At every level, they have quality barristers and a depth of choice many other chambers don't have'. Legal 500 2021

We invite applications from all practitioners who have a background in regulatory areas. In particular, we welcome applications from individuals with a particular interest (which may include specialist counsel panel membership) in Health & Safety, Trading Standards, Environmental and Professional Disciplinary.

Applications

Lincoln House Chambers is committed to Equality and Diversity at the bar. Our Equality and Diversity Policy is available upon request. We support the Bar Council in working to create a profession representative of all and for all. We welcome applications from all persons and value diversity in the workplace. We encourage applications from individuals who are under represented at the bar.

Chambers offers its members an outstanding service at one of the most competitive rates nationally with no fixed costs.

Chambers will treat all applications in the strictest confidence.

Please send applications by way of CV and covering letter no later than 31st May 2021 to Director of Clerking, David Wright, at dwright@lincolnhousechambers.com or call on 0161 832 5701 for further information or should you wish to request that any reasonable adjustment be made in relation to your application.
